

Getting ready for the Super Bowl game? When thinking of the great snacks to have while watching the game, remember the hungry around the world and in our own community.

Next weekend our Confirmation students will be at all masses collecting your change for several selected causes. All proceeds will go to these charities including the Haitian relief effort. Please support our students as they join in the fight against hunger:
Souper Bowl of Caring 2010.